

Family Celebration FAQ

How Do I get tickets?

Wristband tickets are available for purchase in the Veritas office or online at www.VeritasSav.org/events/. If you purchase online, your wristbands will be delivered to you in the carpool lane.

Does everyone need a ticket?

Yes! Everybody attending any part of the evening will need a ticket. Ages 2 and under are free.

Who can we include in the $50 family max?

Only immediate family members - mom, dad, & children living in the same household can be included in the family max. It does not include grandparents, cousins, friends, etc.

What's included with the tickets?

Tickets include entrance to the event and lots of fun and food. We will also have raffle prize drawings.

What should I bring?

Seating for the Variety Show will be outdoors, so bring blankets or chairs and bug spray.

Should I plan to stay the whole evening?

Taking in all the fun is highly encouraged, but you may come and go as you please.

What is a Faux Food Truck?

Delicious food truck style food catered by Silk Road Catering served out of student designed faux food trucks.

This sounds like so much fun, is there a way I can get involved?

Sure! We welcome event volunteers. Contact the office for more info.
